

Short bio Eugenia Brachini

Eugenia Brachini graduated in Law at the University Luiss Guido Carli of Rome with the vote 110 with honours (2005). Afterwards, she attended a specialisation course at the School of Specialisation in Legal profession (the Third University of Rome, 2007). Moreover, she attended the Specialisation Course in Environmental Law from the University of Siena (2013).

In 2009, she passed the State Selection and was enabled to practice as a lawyer. She practices in administrative and civil law and has been working for several years with the association Federconsumatori - which deals with the protection of consumers' rights - both as lawyer and legal consultant.

She collaborated with the research group "Environmental Legal Team" as a legal intern (2013-2014) and she is a researcher in the research group Regulation for Sustainability.

Publications:

La regolamentazione degli interventi di trasformazione del territorio in attuazione della direttiva Habitat tra diritto Europeo e diritto Interno, Rivista Giuridica dell'Ambiente, Esperienze di amministrazione e documentazione, 2013, vol. 28, No. 5, pp. 629 – 640.